Christian Church Will Have Holy Week Services

The First Christian Church of Torrance, 2930 El Dorado, will observe the events of Easter on three different days. On Maunday Thursday, at 7:30 p.m., the Chancel Choir will sing the sacred cantata "The Seven Last Words" by DuBois. Immediately following the cantata there will be a communion service.

All day Good Friday a prayer vigil will be held in the prayer chapel, except during the time of the union Good Friday service, 12 to 1 p.m., in the First Methodist Church. On Easter Sunday there will be three worship services, at 8, 9:30, and 11 a.m. The subject of Rev. Sipple's sermon will be "Faith in the Risen Christ". At 8 a.m. Mrs. Jean Fenton will be soloist. At 9:30 a.m., Wesley Smith will be soloist assisted by the Youth Choir. At 11 a.m., the Chancel Choir will sing two anthems.

Union Service Good Friday at First Methodist

A Union Good Friday Service will be held at the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado, Friday, April 4th, from 12:1 p.m. The service is sponsored by the Torrance Ministerial Association. Rev. Milton Sipple of the First Christian Church is chairman of the group.

The Reverend Wendell Hook of the First Methodist Church, directed by the Reverend Don Shelby, will sing two anthems, "Lament and Weep," German chorale, and "Lamb of God," arranged by Christiansen. The Reverend Robert Schatz, the Rev. Morgan Gates, the Reverend Milton Sipple, and the Reverend Charles Little will assist in the service. The Reverend John L. Taylor is the host pastor.

Methodists Plan Easter Services

Morning worship services will be held from 8:00 to 11 on the hour, as Easter is celebrated in the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado. Rev. John L. Taylor, pastor of the church, will deliver the sermon, "The Light in the Tomb."

The children's choirs will sing at the early service, using as their anthems, "O Sons and Daughters" and "In Joseph's Lovely Garden." The Chancel choir will lead in the remaining services. Their anthems will be "Come, Ye Faithful" and "As it Began to Dawn." Claire McCown is soloist. Minister of the church will administer the Sacrament of Infant Baptism, at 3 p.m.

Sunrise Services, sponsored by the Youth Division will be held Easter morning on a site in the Rolling Hills just off Crest rd. Those who want to attend are asked to convene at the church, 1551 El Prado, at 5 a.m. The group will then move to the service site.

Rev. Don Shelby will deliver the meditation. Sharon Kirks is chairman for the event, assisted by Marvin Hiebert, Youth Adviser. Other groups participating are the Wesley Fellowship, the Senior Fellowship, Dukes HLY Club, Intermediate M.Y.F. and Girls' World Friendship.

A breakfast in the Fellowship Hall of the church will follow the services.

Evangelists to Lead Revival at Harbor City Foursquare Church

Evangelists Robert and LaDeane Jacobs will hold revival services at the Harbor City Foursquare Church, beginning Easter Sunday night, April 6, for one week only.

Rev. Robert Jacobs was formerly a semi-professional baseball player for the Wilmington Merchants and Wilmington All-stars in the Harbor area, and is well known by many people as he graduated from Banning High School and attended Harbor Junior College in Wilmington.

Child Evangelist His wife, LaDeane Jacobs, the former LaDeane Murdock, was a nationally known child evangelist, who began preaching at the age of 6 years. She traveled with her parents all over the United States. She held a revival at this church as a small child evangelist, for the present pastor, Rev. Marion Piles.

Mrs. Jacobs will play the trumpet and is a fine vocal soloist, while LaDeane will play the piano and organ. She is an accomplished accordionist as well, and sings solos, and duets with her husband.

Sunday night, the opening service will be highlighted with special music by this talented couple. Rev. Robert Jacobs will speak on, "Resurrection Power for Revival." Services will be nightly at 7:30 except for Monday night. Rev. Marion Piles, Pastor, extends an invitation to the public to attend the services.

Good Friday Services at First Methodist

In celebration of Good Friday, evening services will be held in the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado, at 7:30 p.m. The Chancel Choir of the church, under the direction of the Reverend Don Shelby, will sing Theodore Dubois' "The Seven Last Words." This cantata takes the last words of Jesus, utters from the cross, and comments upon them with references from the Stabat Mater, other scriptural passages, and the reaction of the mob. Soloists for this presentation will be Claire McCown, soprano, of the First Methodist Church; Murvyn Burne, tenor, of Garden Grove; and Wesley Smith, baritone, First Christian Church of Torrance. Eva Brundin will be at the organ. Following the choir's presentation, the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be served.

Holy Week Services at First Lutheran Church

Holy Week services will be observed at First Lutheran Church with the following Services: Holy Thursday Communion Service, Thursday evening at 7:30. Pastor Gronlund's sermon theme, "The Last Supper"; Good Friday Service, 7:30 p.m., Intern Norman Schnab's sermon theme, "Seven Words of the Cross"; Easter Sunday, four services, 6, 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Rev. Robert B. Gronlund, interim pastor, will preach at the 8 and the 11 a.m. services, on the sermon theme, "Christ is Risen Today." Special music will be provided by the choir. The Youth choir will sing the "Hallelujah Chorus" at the 8 a.m. service, under the direction of Intern Norman Schnable. The Senior choir will sing "Christ Is Risen Today" at the 11 o'clock service, under the direction of Elmer Winter, and the Junior choir will sing, "Rise, Hope of the Ages."

Student pastor Norman Schnable will occupy the pulpit at the 6 a.m. Sunrise Service and also at the 9:30 a.m. worship service. His theme will be, "Have you Been To The Open Tomb?" Special music will be provided at the Sunrise Service by the Youth Choir. They will sing the "Hallelujah Chorus," and at the 9:30 Service, the Senior Choir will sing, "Christ Is Risen Today," and the Jr. Hi choir will sing, "Christ Is Risen."

Baptismal Service A Special Easter Baptismal service will be conducted following the 11 a.m. service by Pastor Gronlund. Those with children to be baptized and wishing to participate in this special service are asked to contact the church office. No Sunday School or Evening Service is scheduled for Easter Day.

Laymen John Schwartz and Stanley LeBon will give brief talks at the 6, 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. services, on the need for prayer in support of the stewardship campaign to be conducted under Rev. Gronlund in April. Pastor Gronlund, who has been occupying the pulpit since the departure of Rev. Paul Wenske for a new charge in Spokane, formerly served Newport Harbor Lutheran Church in Newport Beach. He is a graduate student in religion and Executive Secretary of the Inter-Church Fellowship of Los Angeles City College. He, his wife Dorothy and children Gaye, Robin and Gregg, live in Covina.

Confirmation Held Palm Sunday the following young people were confirmed in the Lutheran faith by Pastor Gronlund, assisted by Intern Norman Schnable: Patricia Maellon Crocker, Robert Henderson, Kyle Jones, Joyce Keeler, Betty Ann Kunde, Stephen McGuire, Joyce Minnear, Sandra Peterson, Mary Ellen Porter, Joann Portlock, Susan Scott, Donald Sirney, Vernon Stallmo, Richard Valentine and Martha Wish.

Evil's Reality Sermon Subject

Biblical accounts of the conflict between good and evil and of the eventual triumph of good are discussed in the Easter Sunday Lesson-Sermon titled "Unreality" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The Golden Text from Job (35:13) pinpoints the subject: "Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it."

Mary Baker Eddy, Founder of the Church of Christ, Scientist, and author of the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," in a statement read during the service says, "In moral chemicalization, when the symptoms of evil, illusion, are aggravated, we may think in our ignorance that the Lord hath wrought an evil; but we ought to know that God's law uncovers so-called sin and its effects, only that Truth may annihilate all sense of evil and power to sin" (p. 540).

From Isaiah (45:17) will be heard the assurance, "But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation; ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end."

Narbonne Church Easter Week Announcements

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church will have two duplicate services this Easter Sunday, at 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. Pastor Robert A. Wells will speak at both services on the subject "Man's Worst Enemy Defeated." The adult choir will sing at both services.

The church choir will present the Easter music at the evening service. The music will feature a medley of Easter music with special numbers by members of the choir. The choir will be directed by Bill Morgan with Mrs. Sylvan Shipley at the organ and Mrs. John Knowner at the piano.

The annual Youth Week will begin with the recognition of the Youth Week officers, this Sunday. They will conduct the mid-week services on Wednesday night. On Sunday, April 13, they will teach the Sunday School classes, work as sponsors and leaders in Training Union, and perform many activities ordinarily cared for by the adult leadership. They will be guests of the regular workers at the monthly Sunday School workers' dinner at 6 p.m., Wednesday, April 9th.

The Pastor will be the evangelist at a one-week revival in Highlands beginning Sunday night.

Religious Science Group Meetings On Easter Sunday, April 6, Rev. Ray Anger of San Pedro, pastor of the Religious Science Group will speak on the topic "The Easter Story—Your New Life Today." This meeting will be held in the YWCA Club House, corner of Plaza Del Amo and Carson. There will be special Easter music and the Hall will be appropriately decorated in Easter flowers. On Good Friday between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. there will be a special devotional service held at the home of Mrs. George Speers, 3909 W. 184th st.
